Dear Doctor,

In accordance with Public Act 93-0281, please accept this as notification informing you of clients seeking chiropractic care in conjunction with traditional veterinarian services. The following client has chosen chiropractic care for the following animals:

Client _____ Patient(s): _____

This document is for your records and in accordance with Public Act 93-0281. (Amendment to Senate Bill 386)

"...A member in good standing of another licensed or regulated profession within any state or a member of an organization or group approved by the Department by rule providing assistance requested by a veterinarian licensed in this State acting with informed consent from the client and acting under the direct or indirect supervision and control of the licensed veterinarian. Providing assistance involves hands-on active participation in the treatment and care of the patient, as defined by rule. The licensed veterinarian shall maintain responsibility for the veterinarian-client-patient relationship..."

The American Veterinary Chiropractic Association certified Dr. Shanie K. Cahill (www.animalchiropractic.org) in Animal Chiropractic.

I _____ have requested chiropractic care from Dr. Shanie Cahill, D.C., C.A.C. for the above-mentioned animal(s) with the understanding that she is not a veterinarian and therefore cannot provide veterinary care.
